

Dr Margaret Oluka was invited as a Facilitator at the International Brain Organization Research (IBRO) Symposium held at the Institute of Primate Research (IPR) In Karen from Oct 30th to 4th Nov, 2022.

Also attending the Symposium from SOP was PhD student in Molecular Pharmacology Benedict Akoo and Bpharm V student Michelle Mayuba.

The theme of the Symposium was: IBRO- ARC Advanced School on Parkinsin's disease: Providing clarity for continuous Teaching and Research from an African Perspective.

Dr Oluka gave a lecture on: The Pharmacological basis of the beneficial effects of Herbal Products in Parkinson's disease.